At Marquette no snow is falling, but in the copper county and to the east of here a violent blizzard is causing railroad great trouble. All trains arriving here are from one to five hours late. Car ferry traffic at the straits is temporarily suspended.

Palmyra, Wis., Jan. 28.—The mercury registered eighteen degrees below this morning.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH MAY HAVE SPLIT

Men of "Low Church" Party Accuse the Board of Missions of Unjust Practices.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 28.—Episcopalians in this city declare that the distribution of missionary funds by the board of missions is one of the most unjust for years.

At the general convention of the church in San Francisco last fall the usual resolution was passed authorizing the Episcopal board of missions to make appointments for dioceses. No apportionment was made for the American Church Missionary Society, although upon it had been placed the responsibility of raising $25,000 a year for missionary work in Brazil.

This caused talk of the forming of a new society among the "low church" men, on the ground that the present board of missions had lost the confidence of the church. The board, it is claimed, was $100,000 behind at the end of August.

LA FOLLETTE MEN WORK A FUNERAL

Get Signatures to Their Petition Among People Gathered in the Cemetery.

The parties circulating La Follette petitions are certainly hard workers, and allow no chance to get a signer to slip away from them. Some of them, however, carry the thing so far that they disgust the members of their own party. Last week a funeral was held in the town of LaPrairie which was largely attended by the farmers from the surrounding country.

The La Follette leaders, knowing that there would be a large number of people present at the services sent a man to the funeral with a petition looking for signers. The circulator was industrious and paid no attention to the services his whole aim being to get a name on his list. He secured some signers and probably would have secured more had he been working any other kind of a gathering.

Many of those present were disgusted with the proceeding and declined to sign the petition. One solid farmer said it was the first time he ever saw a funeral turned into a political convention and hoped it would be the last time.

The circulator came back to this city after the funeral was over and to around at several saloons how he worked the funeral gathering to La Follette's interests.

BIG FIRE TODAY AT MANITOWOC

Large Store Building of S. A. Ward Burned to the Ground—Loss $6,000—Partially Insured.

Manitowoc, Wis., Jan. 28.—One of the worst fires which has ever occurred here took place this morning. The firemen were kept busy fighting it and it was not until after several hours' struggle that the flames were under control. The large store building of S. A. Ward occupied in part by Ernest Wagner Co. department store, was burned to the ground. The loss on the building is $30,000 and on the stock, $30,000. Both losses are partially covered by insurance.

W. A. Jackman went to Beloit this morning on legal business.

MINERS TO LEVY AN ASSESSMENT

The Convention Decides to Maintain an Always Available Strike Fund.

WAR ON MANAGERS

Recognition of the Organization Is Felt To Be at Stake.

THE EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 28.—The United Mine Workers at their convention Monday passed a resolution providing that an assessment be levied on all members of the organization sufficient to secure the speedy and successful termination of all strikes now engaged in by the various branches. A motion that the national executive board determine the amount of the assessment was passed after much discussion.

President Mitchell, who is head of the executive committee, had an understanding with the convention that the levy was to cover only such strikes as have the endorsement of the national board. It is the purpose of the miners to fight the operators to the end in all these strikes, as recognition of their organization is at stake.

The charges and counter charges of Delegate James Mooney and President Mitchell and Secretary-treasurer Wilson led to a debate that occupied most of the afternoon. The convention finally decided to drop the whole matter, leaving Mooney in the hands of the convention of his own district, which has been called in special session to meet within a short time to try him.

It is expected that the anthracite miners will demand through the convention an eight-hour day, recognition for the union, and a minimum wage scale.

An Illinois delegate presented a resolution raising the salary of the national president to $2,500 a year. The president now gets $1,800.

Mail Car Stopped at Terre Haute.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 28.—The street railway company was notified yesterday that Marshal Prince of Brazil had searched one of the interurban mail cars for United States mail and, finding none, ordered the trainmen to take off the sign, "U. S. Mail." The company claims the last pouch of mail had just been delivered. The matter has been brought to the attention of the United States district attorney.

The cars were running regularly, but with hardly any passengers, the boycott and fear of flying missiles keeping people off them.

It is said cases of smallpox have developed among the men housed in the car barns, but the story is denied.

Girls on Strike at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 28.—As a result of the discharge of five girls, the 200 other girl employees of Louis Meier & Co., overall makers, walked out. TELEPHONE MONOPOLY BROKEN

Bell Company Meets Defeat in Important Suit at Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 28.—The Bell Telephone Company has been knocked out of a monopoly in the use of party service lines, especially adapted for rural districts, by the United States circuit court of this city. An appeal will be taken to the United States Supreme court before a final decision is reached.

Litigation has been going on since 1897, when the Westmorland Electric Company, a constituent of the Bell company brought suit against the Milheim Electric Telephone Company, alleging infringement of the John J. Carty patent, and two decisions were given against the Milheim company by Judge Buffington.

JOHN A. HINSEY IS ACQUITTED

Five Pythian Past Chancellors Free Him from All Charges.

FOUND NOT GUILTY

For Twenty Years Hinsey Was at Head of the Endowment Rank.

TRIAL BY THE ORDER

Chicago, January 28.—After twenty-three sessions a committee of five Past Chancellors of the Inter-Domain Lodge, Knight of Pythias, last night unanimously voted to acquit John A. Hinsey of the charges brought against him.

Immediately after the close of the session Mr. Hinsey's attorneys, who appeared for him before the trial board of the lodge, announced that Ogden H. Fethers, Supreme Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of the World would be sued by Hinsey for $100,000 damages on their round of alleged malicious prosecution and libel.

Mr. Hinsey is the former head of the insurance department of the Knights of Pythias. Charges of mismanagement and misappropriation of funds were made against him at the meeting of the Supreme Lodge in Chicago last July. A few weeks ago he was tried on criminal charges brought against him before Judge Dunne and acquitted.

Trial by the Order

The trial in the order, however, was of a different character. Hinsey is a member of the Inter-Domain Lodge, one of the strongest in the state. It holds its meetings in the Masonic Temple. For twelve years he was the head of the endowment rank, and resigned a year ago.

At the conclusion of the twenty-third session last night the verdict of acquittal was rendered. The complaint covered 125 typewritten pages and over 1,000 pages of evidence were handed in. Attorneys B. C. Baehrach and Benson Landon represented Hinsey during the progress of the case.

The evidence which the defense produced was to the effect that $500,000 had been loaned on good security and since paid back to the treasury. In another paragraph Hinsey was charged with appropriating to his own use $1,726 while he was secretary of a Milwaukee lodge in 1893, and this charge was also disproved.

Marshall making the response. General F. C. Winkler and George P. Miller of Milwaukee presented the memorials for Judges Elliott and Hamilton, Chief Justice Cassoday making the response to that for Judge Hamilton, and Justice Darden to that for Judge Elliott.

SMALLPOX RAGES AT DES MOINES, IA.

Over 500 Cases Now, and the Number May Double—An Epidemic at Indianapolis.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 28.—Five hundred persons in Des Moines have smallpox and the pesthouse can accommodate but eighty-nine. Other towns are considering the advisability of quarantining against Des Moines.

Owing to the large number of exposures from the existing cases and the disadvantages of extreme cold it is predicted there will be 1,000 cases of the disease in Des Moines within a month.

The advisability of closing all the public meeting places has been discussed but abandoned owing to the sacrifice it involves. The adoption of such an order would necessitate indefinite adjournment of the legislature now meeting in biennial session.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 28.—So alarming has the smallpox plague become here that the health board has called an emergency meeting.

Appleton, Wis., Jan. 28.—Notwithstanding the fact that nearly $10,000 has been spent by the health department to check the spread of smallpox Appleton still has 175 cases. Health Officer Beveridge and the majority of the physicians say that the attempts at rigid quarantine have been futile.

CUCUMBERS AT AN ADVANCE

TAKE SAFES IN AN EXPRESS CAR

Seven Robbers Make Successful Raid on South Carolina Train After Firing 100 Shots.

Charleston, S. C., Jan. 28.—Near Branchville, S. C., sixty miles from Charleston, on the Southern railway, seven robbers last night held up the passenger train and made a clean sweep of the express car. About 100 shots were fired.

The express and mail cars were uncoupled and the engineer was forced to run a mile toward the swamps, where two iron safes were removed from the express car and loaded upon a wagon which was in waiting.

Two years ago a similar robbery took place and Bartow Warren, who was arrested, after killing the main witness against him, escaped.

Telegrams from Blanchardville today stated that the robbers were not masked and escaped. The passengers were not molested.

WHEELER WEDDED TO PACIFIC COAST

President of University of California Will Not Accept Head of Wisconsin University.

Berkeley, Cal., Jan. 28.—It is stated here today that President Benjamin Wheeler of the University of California, who has been mentioned as a possible president of the University of Wisconsin, would not accept the position if it were tendered him. President Wheeler, in the course of a conversation today, mentioned casually that he had so many interests on the coast that he did not think it likely that he would leave for many years to come. While the subject of the Wisconsin presidency was not under discussion it is thought that President Wheeler had reference to this in his remark.

FRIENDS OF CUBA STANDING FIRM

Reduction of Sugar Tariff on Reciprocity Basis Fixed Policy of the Administration.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 28.—Relief for Cuba has become the settled policy of the administration. President Roosevelt and his cabinet have become convinced that a reduction of 25 or even 50 per cent in the tariff on Cuban sugar would not affect the beet sugar industry of the United States at all. They believe that even if some should be produced on an American industry the situation is so grave in Cuba and the duty of the United States so manifest, that the tariff should be reduced in spite of a possible loss to the American sugar growers.

President Roosevelt has consulted with the most of the leading senators, and, instead of feeling disposed to yield to the importunities and threats of Mr. Oxnard, the administration is more than ever convinced of the plain duty of the American people, to borrow a phrase which was extensively used a couple of years ago.

The Senators and others who have consulted with the president have taken firm ground in this regard. They are convinced that the crisis in Cuba is acute, and that if the United States fails to come to the relief of a people over whom this country by act of congress has established a protectorate the civilized world would denounce America and hold it responsible for the starvation in Cuba which is almost certain to follow unless there is some relief to the present situation.

SCENES ABOUT SAN FRANCISCO

Golden Gate, Cliff House and Nob Hill, Written Up.

PARK IS CHARMING

Interesting Descriptive Letter from Mrs. Louise F. Brand, in State of California.

VISIT THE PRESIDIO

San Francisco, Jan. 28.—There are a certain few of the many interesting places in and around San Francisco which everyone goes to see as a matter of course. Chief among these is Chinatown for no one has seen "the city," as everyone in northern California calls San Francisco, unless they have made an evening excursion through the quaint narrow streets of the oriental quarter. Among the other places which all tourists are advised to see are Golden Gate park, the Cliff House and Suto Heights, Nob Hill out California avenue, where many of the wealthy and aristocratic families in San Francisco reside in magnificent palatial establishments; the Palace hotel, and the Presidio, the military headquarters of the department of California.

As our stay in the city was limited to two nights and a day, we followed the regular routine, saw the things which we were expected to see and left the pleasure of searching out less important, but just as interesting places until a later day.

The Palace Hotel

The Palace Hotel, which claims to be the largest and most magnificent structure ever dedicated to the needs of a traveling public, sounded rather imposing for people to whom unfortunately money is some object, so we made our headquarters at the Grand just across the street, on the corner of New Montgomery and Market streets and right in the heart of the city. The Palace and Grand hotels are now under one management and together have 1400 rooms and 600 bathrooms.

The hotels are much more reasonable than in Chicago and we were pleasantly surprised when we were ushered into a large cheerful room with an alcove bedroom. But alas! it was not heated and there was no fireplace and to people fresh from the warmth and comfort of steam heat and base burners, the prospect of many evening slogs in the chill room was not very inviting.

We were not without reminders of home for the beer that made Milwaukee famous thousands of miles to quench the thirst which is one of the standard possessions of mankind and signs announcing that the product of the Milwaukee breweries was on sale within, were seen frequently.

Competing of the Railroads

From the parlor windows could be seen the large corner office of the Chicago & Northwestern railway company, with the windows decorated with the familiar sign. It was a busy place for railroad competition is exceptionally brisk in San Francisco and the different lines all have up-town offices close together right in the heart of the city.

The C. M. & St. P. R. R. office was a few doors down from the Northwestern. There are plenty of nice restaurants in San Francisco where three immense "french cakes" and a cup of coffee, served for ten cents, makes about all the breakfast one can swallow and where a substantial dinner, including soup, meat and vegetables, salad, coffee and dessert, can be procured for twenty-five cents.

Market the Main Street

The arrangement of the streets of San Francisco is peculiar and rather puzzling. Market street is the main street of the city and runs north and south. All little streets east of Market run north and south or east and west but the streets west of Market join it at an acute angle, the larger part of the city being laid out on oblique lines when related to Market street. This Third street runs to the east side of Market street and ends joining the main thoroughfare at a right angle. Directly across the street on the west side of market street both Kearney and Geary streets begin. Kearney slanting off in a south-westerly direction and Geary running north-west.

This diagonal part of the city lies on and between steep hills so that a ride on the street cars is a novel and varied experience. Cable cars are used almost entirely and when a person is seated on the front seat of a grip car as it goes over the brow of a steep hill and dashes down the incline one is carried back very vividly to the heart-in-the-throat sensations peculiar to the sport of coasting down hill on a bob.

Golden Gate Park

Immediately after breakfast we took a car for Golden Gate park and after riding some time up and down hills and between long lines of frame houses in front of which geraniums and nasturtiums were in bloom we came to the entrance.

Tourist travel is so light just at present that the bus line which makes the round of the park for ten cents only runs Sundays so we took a car and had a delightful drive through the beautiful grounds which cover over one thousand acres. It is densely wooded with native trees, mammoth palms, pines, eucalyptus and recross the frontier, so as to facilitate the liberation of the captives. A A. Gargiulo, first dragoon of the United States legation at Constantinople; Dr. House and W. W. Peet, treasurer of the American mission at Constantinople, have undertaken to hand over the ransom and receive the captives. They have accepted all risks and, by special request, are no longer accompanied by an escort of soldiers

Miss Ellen M. Stone has been in captivity since Sept. 3. On the afternoon of that day she was traveling with a party of missionaries from Bansko to Djumao. The little expedition was stopped by a band of brigands, numbering about forty, who separated the American woman from her companions and took her with them, also a companion, Mme. Talika. They retreated to the mountains and since that time have been dodging from first one place to another, hiding in the recesses of the mountains, and at times forcing Miss Stone to undergo great hardships.

Those who were released by the brigands said they wore Turkish clothes, but spoke Bulgarian fluently. They have treated Miss Stone well, according to the messages which have been delivered in a mysterious manner from the missionary to her friends.

Miss Stone's home is in Chelsea, Mass. She is about 52 years old, and has been engaged in the missionary work for more than twenty-five years. She is one of the leading members of the mission at Salonica, having had charge of the work among the women in that district. The brigands demanded $121,000 at first as a ransom, but since that time it has been considerably reduced.

HARDSHIPS OF RAILROAD MEN

A Spell of Cold Weather
Such as Now Prevails,
Is Dreaded.

MANY EXTRA RUNS

Suffering Entailed and the Greatly Increased Liability to Serious Accidents.

KNIGHTS OF THE RAIL

Probably no line of industry suffers so much inconvenience from the cold as the railroads, especially in the freight service. It not only greatly interferes with the handling of the trains by the running gear being affected by the cold and increases the chances of accident by causing rails to snap or wheels to break but causes great suffering among the train men for whom this is the busiest season, this being the time of the year when the heaviest amount of freight is being moved and there is the greatest number of trains.

The men are required to make many extra runs, often times scarcely reaching their homes and crawling into their beds for the much needed rest when the call boy routs them out to go out with an extra.

A Graphic Description
A reporter came upon a group of trainmen at one of the local stations last evening and in response to a query, one of the group, a hearty, genial man, who carried a nickel-plated lantern and wore a suit of blue, gave a graphic description of the hardships that the cold weather forced upon the "Knights of the Rail."

He said: "Yes! a spell of extreme cold weather such as that which is now prevalent is always dreaded by railroad men who probably suffer more exposure than any other class. This dread comes not alone from the suffering entailed by the bitter cold but also from the greatly increased liability to accident, especially if as the present time there has been a fall of snow."

The bitter cold necessitates that the freight brakemen wear the heaviest of clothing about the body, which renders them clumsy and makes very difficult the necessary feat of scrambling up and down the iron ladders of the box cars when they are in motion.

Heavy Cap With Ear-Laps

"Besides this they must wear heavy mittens to protect their hands, heavy arctics for the feet and worst of all a heavy cap with earlaps that must be pulled tightly down over the ears for the protection of the ears, for there can be no colder place not even on a mountain top in midwinter when a hurricane is in progress, than the top of a box car with a train whirling along at a speed of forty miles an hour and it would take but a few moments of such exposure to cause them to freeze."

"Engineers and firemen on both freight and passenger runs also suffer their share of the exposure. The active work of the fireman in keeping the engine hot makes him perspire freely and the moment he stops to rest in the cold cab where the heat of the fire box is only sufficient to keep one side warm while the other freezes he is chilled through and through and as a consequence catches a cold which under the conditions of his work it is almost impossible to shake off."

Their Clothing Freezes

"The engineer must remain seated at his post with his hand upon the reverse lever as the engine travels mile after mile. His work permits of no exercise. The heat from the fire box and the boiler head are only sufficient to keep one side partially warm, while the chill blasts come in at frequent periods through the window which he must open every now and then to catch the signals and when the fireman has the steam curtain up to shovel in the coal, the gusts of cold air rushing in meets the warm air of the cab producing a cloud of moisture which ere many miles are run has made the clothing as damp as would a rain storm with the result that when he gets down to oil at a station his clothing freezes like boards."

"It's no wonder," he continued, after recounting these conditions which are a part of the railroad man's daily life to his group of listeners, "that a man dreads to hear the call-boy's knock on days and nights such as these.

Slow Packing Lunch Pail

"He knows what it means and its no wonder that the wife or the mother as she packs your lunch pail is a little slower than usual and gives a parting word of advice about being careful as she kisses you good-bye at the door. After, all to often in the days that are gone for the lost time."

"However! It is not as bad as it used to be," spoke up another. "The boys have a snap nowadays compared with the way it was when I was holding down the head end trick. We didn't have any patent couplers nor air brakes and the chances of injury as well as the exposure was much greater. In those days we were compelled to hold and stop all freight trains by the old hand brakes, while now the engineer controls the train while the trainmen remain in the stove by the caboose."

"Another thing we did not have any patent couplers but had to step in and make the coupling by hand. A feat which has been the cause of fully 60 percent of the fatal accidents. It was almost every week that some one of the boys had his lamp put out by slipping on the icy ground as he ran in to make a coupling or else it is a draught iron overlapped and he was squeezed to death."

Holmes Popular

Mr. E. Burton Holmes seems to be enjoying even greater popularity this season, if possible, than ever before in the course of his career as a lecturer. This successful young Chicagoan is devoting his life to bringing the world before the American people. His descriptions are so vivid and his illustrations so realistic, that the listener or reader almost feels himself transported to the scenes of Holmes' interesting travels. This year he has five new subjects; three on the Russian empire; one on Pekin and one on Corea—the Hermit Nation. Mr. Holmes lectured at the Pabst theater, Milwaukee, five successive Tuesday nights in November and December, and these subjects proved so popular that the vast auditorium was packed to overflowing, several hundred people failing to get even standing room. In Chicago where he appeared at the Studebaker theater, he was compelled to repeat every one of his lectures three, and sometimes four times, to accommodate the vast audiences who could not gain admission at his first appearance. This state of affairs is duplicated in every city in which he appears. He has been lecturing for the past week in St. Louis, Mo., and Denver, Colo. Monday he starts on his eastern cycle which includes Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia, New York and Boston. Such is his popularity that he only appears in twenty of the largest cities of the United States. During the past nine seasons Mr. Holmes has lectured on thirty subjects gathered during the seventeen years he has traveled in foreign lands, covering over 200,000 miles.

At the urgent request of thousands of his delighted patrons, Mr. Holmes has finally consented to give his lectures to the public in book form. His list of subjects includes three lectures on Morocco, a country which is just beginning to be much talked about; three on France; then the lectures on Greece and following them are two on the Barbary coast and Algeria, a part of northern Africa which is beginning to attract large numbers of tourists. Then comes Southern Spain describing Gibraltar, the Hawaiian and Philippine Islands with which new acquisitions every progressive American should be familiar. Then the "Edge of China," and three lectures on this country—Mok Land, The Grand Canyon and Yellowstone National Park, Oberammergau in 1902 and Through Europe; Corsica, the birthplace of Napoleon; five lectures on the Russian empire; Pekin, Corea and two on the progressive Japanese.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

MILTON.
Milton, Jan. 28.—This village was shocked Sunday noon by the sudden and unexpected death of George W. Fetherston. He had been in usual health and got up from the dinner table to go to the next room, fell to the floor, and died almost instantly. Deceased came to this village several years ago from his farm in Johnston where for many years he had been a resident, and during his residence here made many new friends and acquaintances and gained the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact. He was a remarkably active man for one of his years and had a cheery word for all. An aged wife and the following sons and daughters survive him: William, of Madera, Cal.; John S., of Enid, Okla.; Ernest A., of Ravenswood, Ill.; Geo. R., of Janesville; and James W., of Johnston; Mrs. Gillesby, of New Orleans, La.; Mrs. Bennett, of Salmon River, N. Y.; Mrs. Rathbun, of Aurora, Iowa; Miss Fanny Fetherston, of Ravenswood, Ill.; Mrs. McCartney, of Johnston. The arrangements for the funeral have not been made at the time we write.

Wilmer J. Saunders met with a serious accident Sunday while at work in Dr. Kelly's well. A piece of loose grout fell from the top of the well and struck his head. Seven stitches were put in his scalp by the physician, but he was able to be about in the evening and no serious results are anticipated from the injury. Luckily the blow was a glancing one.

A FAIR QUESTION.

There is one question at least that Rock county republicans should consider carefully, before arraying themselves in opposition to Mr. Whitehead's candidacy for governor, and that is, what excuse is there for such action?

It is urged that Governor La Follette is entitled to a second term as an endorsement, and because of old time custom.

Is the argument any stronger than in 1898, when Governor Scofield was before the people for endorsement?

Was there anything about his administration that did not meet with popular approval, and was not worthy of endorsement?

Was he opposed for any valid reasons other than personal ambition?

Did any one question La Follette's right to oppose him if he so desired?

Conditions appear to have changed since then and the governor and his supporters question the right of any man, to enter the field against him. The attempt is resented so vigorously that when the opposition centers on a man who seems available, an effort is made to discredit him in his own county.

This policy, is short-sighted in the extreme, and men who think twice will not become a party to it. Mr. Whitehead is not seeking the office. If he accepts the call and becomes a candidate it will be because a large and respectable element of the party throughout the state invites him to do so. Rock county is not responsible for this state sentiment, she is simply favored by having as a citizen, a statesman who commands universal respect.

Because the conservative element of the party united on Senator Whitehead, it was not occasion for the supporters of the governor to start out with petitions endorsing him and requesting him to be a candidate for renomination. Neither is there any occasion for feeling, because a strong clement in the party seek for a man to represent them. In 1898 Mr. La Follette applied to be governor. He had a strong and enthusiastic following of men who were in sympathy with his personal ambition. There were no principles involved, and there was no issue between his supporters and the supporters of Governor Scofield, and yet the latter's friends did not question his right to enter the field against a governor who had given universal satisfaction.

Conditions are reversed today. Senator Whitehead is not seeking gubernatorial honor. He is simply asked to be the standard bearer of conservative republicanism. The men who make the request are not influenced by personal ambition. They feel that party welfare and the best interests of the state, demand action. There are principles involved that did not enter into the contest in 1898.

Rock county republicans who may be in accord with Governor La Follette can hardly afford to array themselves against this kind of sentiment for two or three reasons. In the first place, it will accomplish nothing, and in the second place, it simply creates contentions in the county. Mr. Whitehead will represent the opposition to the governor in the convention. Republicans in his own county should recognize this fact, and if an element of the party are not in sympathy with the principles, he represents, there will be ample time to oppose him legitimately and honorably in the convention. Party harmony should be preserved in the county, because party loyalty will be the watchword of the convention.

Substantial men in movement

Columbia county, which has always been one of Mr. La Follette's strongholds—the county where almost any sort of politician could do the organizing if it was for "Bob" and where republicans heretofore would follow the lead of democrats and democrats would talk and work with the republicans if it was in "Bob's" interests—Columbia county has awakened from the hypnotic thrall under which the magnetic La Follette has held it for so many years and is no longer La Follette's.

Why this is so is a question which would require a large amount of space to answer, but briefly some of Mr. La Follette's acts as governor and his dictatorial methods with the legislature, are in no small degree responsible for the widespread defection from his banner.

The strength of the opposition to him may be best understood by a reference to what has been done; take the list of names signed to the Whitehead call as an indication and it will be seen that many of the best known names in Portage are signed to it; almost without exception they are men prominent in the business and professional life of the city and only a very small percentage of them have been active in politics in the past. Such men as these do not lend their names to ephemeral movements of any kind and most certainly would not array themselves in opposition to the renomination of Mr. La Follette did they not see the danger to the state which must certainly follow a continuance of La Follette political methods. They are without exception conservative, hard-headed business men who have been obliged to observe where republican politics are drifting in Wisconsin and who propose to make a change for the better, and who will do all in honor that lies in their power to make the change. They are not seeking office nor political prestige; very few of them are connected in any way whatever with any other political movement. But these men see that to return Mr. La Follette to the governor's chair means the defeat of Hon. John C. Spooner for a renomination for the United States senate and a permanent disruption of the republican party in the state. They are safe men to follow and their disinterestedness may not be questioned.

When the petitions to the Hon. John M. Whitehead to permit the use of his name before the next state convention for the nomination for the governorship are circulated in the county we believe that just such men as those who are furthering his interests in Portage will sign the call; we believe that the conservative men in the county and state, the men who see where the party is drifting and who desire to see Mr. Spooner returned to the United States senate will sign the call; every republican who has the best interests of his party at heart should sign it.—Portage Register.

A long list of the substantial business men of Portage follows.

Congress is patiently awaiting the arrival of Governor Taft. He will be in Washington tomorrow, and the true condition of affairs in the Philippines can be readily determined.

Governor Taft is a conservative and efficient official, and his judgment, based on experience, should settle many perplexing questions, that are difficult to comprehend ten thousand miles away.

Professor Pearson furnished the Chicago clergymen a fertile topic for discussion last Sunday. If the gifted pedagogue escapes the tide of righteous indignation that has set in against him, it will be a miracle as pronounced as the escape of the Israelites so many years ago. The professor will be prepared to believe almost anything when the theologians get through with him.

The circuit riders and paid emissaries of the administration should hold themselves in readiness to tackle some other county. Their missionary work is about completed in Rock. There are sixty-nine other counties that are color blind, and patiently waiting for the advance guard of enlightenment.

Rubber boots for dogs are furnished by an enterprising New York dealer, at $4.25 per pair. With the Wisconsin tax on the canines removed, the Badger state ought to be a good market.

The Milwaukee organ, in sizing up the La Follette sentiment in Janesville, overlooked the state veterinarian. He is something of a shouter, and entitled to recognition.

The dog tax is a dead issue, and the ice tax is an unknown quantity, but the one-mill microbe is getting in its deadly work with great regularity.

A round billion in money, to say nothing of the loss of life, represents the financial cost of the South African war. It is hard for England to let go.

Sensor Mason of Illinois expects to succeed himself. The ambition is commendable, but the state appears to be making other arrangements.

The weather is manufacturing ice so fast that the state will find it difficult to play even with the game on a ten cent tax of uncertain value.

Apply a little Christian Science to the tax question, and no increase will be discovered.

OUR DUTY TO CUBA.

The peace of Cuba is necessary to the peace of the United States; the health of Cuba is necessary to the health of the United States; the independence of Cuba is necessary to the safety of the United States. The same considerations which led to the war with Spain now require that a commercial arrangement be made under which Cuba can live.—Secretary Root's report.

I most earnestly ask your attention to the wisdom, indeed, to the vital need, of providing for a substantial reduction in the tariff duties in Cuban imports into the United States. Cuba has in her constitution affirmed what we desired, that she would stand in international matters, in closer and more friendly relations with us than with any other power; and we are bound by every consideration of honesty and expediency to pass commercial measures in the interest of her material well-being.—President Roosevelt's Message.

The language of the president is very strong and explicit. He is prompted by the same spirit of humanity that inspired the nation to liberate the island from bondage. In the adjustment of trade relations that are so necessary to the life of the new republic, the honor of the nation is involved, and congress has a large question to consider. Public sentiment favors a fair and equitable settlement.

WORKS BOTH WAYS.

The plea made by friends of Governor La Follette that no Whitehead petitions be circulated in Dane county comes with poor grace, when it is recalled that the La Follette men are doing all in their power to discredit Senator Whitehead in Rock county. It will be excellent policy to pass the Whitehead petitions around in every county in Wisconsin, not omitting even Dane. The friends of the governor may as well understand, once for all, that the supporters of the Whitehead movement have entered the campaign to stay and will push it with all the zeal possible. Those who are oversolicitous concerning the personal feelings of the governor, as regards a canvass of Dane, should have taken into consideration what their campaign in Rock county invited. They have established a precedent there, as they did in Oconto county two years ago; let them make no objections then if the Whitehead men consider all Wisconsin legitimate territory.—Fond du Lac Commonwealth.

PRESS COMMENT.

Muscoda Watchman: There are a variety of things to think of about the tax question. On one phase all are united, and that is that the rate should be equalized and the amount lowered. Just how to do it involves many problems that require careful study. One thing is certain and that is that the subject should be kept out of politics as far as possible. It should not be an issue in either partisan or party politics, and should be solved by the careful work of the best men the people can elect to the legislature. Then let the tax commission furnish facts and figures and the legislature legislate, and something both just and wise may be accomplished.

Fond du Lac Reporter: The Fond du Lac "league" is now at work in earnest—it has started out with a petition for the securing of names of republicans who are favorable to the nomination of Senator Whitehead for governor on the republican ticket. Already a long list of signers has been secured and their identity made known by publication. The canvass of the city and county is in the hands of W. E. Griswold, G. A. Knapp, H. E. Sweet, L. W. Clark and G. N. Mills and they promise to present the banner petition to the stalwart candidate.

Madison Democrat: The anti-Whitehead organs are complaining that petitions are often signed for Whitehead under mistake or under misrepresentation as to their contents. By these complaints they impeach their own hobby. The primary election law, as they seek to enact it, rests on the initial petition. If that can be procured by fraud and signatures gotten by false representations what virtue is there in a system where fraud is so easily practiced?

Deerfield Enterprise: Governor La Follette told the legislature that the railroads were fairer than the people in the payment of taxes. That the governor's statement to that effect had weight, is evident from the fact that a majority of his subservient followers voted against railroad taxation. The railroad taxation bill was defeated by the governor and his followers and not the stalwarts.

Portage Register: The Whitehead call was circulated here one day only and signed in that one day by seventy-seven republican voters of whom thirty are heads or members of the leading firms of the city; every vocation in the city's life is represented on that call by the leading members of that vocation. Does that look like an evidence of weakness?

With such a man as John M. Whitehead in the executive office the people would know that public affairs would not be placed second to personal ambition, and that the legislature would be free to perform its legitimate functions without threat or interference on the part of the governor.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Delavan Enterprise: That John M. Whitehead is the favorite of this portion of the state for governor is a potent fact, and in the days to come there will be such a rallying to his standard as to make him easily the leader in the convention.

Edgerton Reporter: John Whitehead would be governor of and for all the people. There'll be a happy time in the old state when Honest John gets there. He is big enough to be gracious to everybody.

Under such a governor as John M. Whitehead it is believed republicans will be honored for their loyalty and encouraged to produce the best within them.—Racine Journal.

CHILL WINDS

Are the dread of those whose lungs are "weak." Some fortunate people can follow the summer as it goes southward, and escape the cold blasts of winter and the chill airs of spring. But for the majority of people this is impossible.

Family cares and business obligations hold them fast.

"Weak" lungs are made strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures the obstinate cough, heals the inflamed tissues, stops the hemorrhage, and restores the lost flesh to the emaciated body.

"I am a railroad agent," writes J. B. Staples, Esq., of Barclay, Osgood Co., Kans., "and four years ago my work kept me in a warm room and stepping out frequently into the cold air gave me bronchitis, which became chronic and deep seated. Doctors failed to reach my case and advised me to try a higher air, but, fortunately for me, a friend also advised me to try Dr. Pierce's medicines. I commenced taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and by the time I had taken the first bottle my cough was entirely gone. I have found no necessity for seeking another climate."

Sometimes a dealer, tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines, will offer the customer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery."

ROB AN EXPRESS TRAIN.

Hold-up Occurs Near Branchville, S. C. In Daylight.

Branchville, S. C., Jan. 28.—Several or eight men held up the passenger train from Charleston on the South ern railroad last night at 7 o'clock. The hold-up occurred five miles from Branchville.

Two men crawled over the tender and covered the engineer with Winchester. They fired two shots, one ball passing through Reynolds' cap. The fireman escaped by jumping off. By order of the bandits a brakeman uncoupled the express, mail and baggage cars. Several shots were fired into the express car, and one man climbed up, covered Express Messenger Hall with a Winchester and compelled him to open the door. Three men entered the car and stripped the local safe. The leader is supposed to be Barton Warren, who was arrested charged with having, single-handed, robbed the Southern express car just below Branchville in the fall of 1899.

A GREAT CHANGE TO MAKE MONEY.

A New Mining Enterprise.

Magnolia Mountain is one of the oldest mining districts in Boulder County, Colorado, and has been noted for years, for its rich deposits of high grade gold ore. Its surface is covered with mines that have produced some of the richest ore ever mined in the state, some of this ore showed up to the surface, but the surface has been covered by the Sylvania Deep Mining and Tunnel Company has been organized for the purpose of driving

A GREAT CROSS CUT TUNNEL

Into the heart of the mountain, to put at a great depth these rich veins and deposits of Gold-Bearing ore. The length of this tunnel will be 300 feet and it controls all undiscovered veins for a distance of 1500 feet on each side of the Tunnel. This tunnel is expected to cut over 20 known Gold-Bearing veins, at a depth of, from 100 to 1500 feet below the surface. In fact it is believed that the great bulk of the ore of the district will be found in this tunnel. The Tunnel will enable these mines to be worked at a good profit and also afford this company a steady income for handling the ore. Conservative estimates fix the EARNINGS FROM DRAINAGE AND TRANSPORTATION, AT $3000 PER DAY. A New Mining Enterprise.

Magnolia Mountain is one of the oldest mining districts in Boulder County, Colorado, and has been noted for years, for its rich deposits of high grade gold ore. A GREAT CROSS CUT TUNNEL

Into the heart of the mountain, to put at a great depth these rich veins and deposits of Gold-Bearing ore. The length of this tunnel will be 300 feet and it controls all undiscovered veins for a distance of 1500 feet on each side of the Tunnel. This tunnel is expected to cut over 20 known Gold-Bearing veins, at a depth of, from 100 to 1500 feet below the surface. In fact it is believed that the great bulk of the ore of the district will be found in this tunnel. The Tunnel will enable these mines to be worked at a good profit and also afford this company a steady income for handling the ore. ## SERIOUS ACCIDENT NARROWLY AVOIDED

Drive Wheel Axle on a Northwestern
Engine Breaks When Just Outside of the City.

That somewhere last night between this city and the city of Chicago the Northwestern vestibuled passenger train down on the time cards as No. 5 did not meet with disaster attended with great loss of human life and destruction of rolling stock, is nothing short of an act of Providence.

An accident occurred to the engine, No. 590, shortly after it pulled out of the local station last evening before the train had gotten under headway which had it occurred under less favorable circumstances as in the nature of things it certainly ought to have done would have been responsible for awful results.

The engine is one of the Schenectady build and of the four driver wheel type and just as it reached the curve at the cut off near the bridge the forward drive wheel axle snapped and released the wheel which went bounding down the steep embankment to the river below.

In the same instant the axle of the rear driver on the opposite side broke and the rear drive wheel went rolling down the bank on that side.

Fortunately for the engine crew and the passengers in the coaches the train had not attained a speed of more than 8 or 10 miles an hour and the engine after swaying back and forth from side to side for a moment, as if it would perchance itself down the forty foot embankment, rested steadily on the remaining wheels and the danger was over.

The train was drawn back to the depot, a new engine attached and it proceeded north by the way of Afton. Trains that should arrive here at 11:08 and 12:10 did not come through here last night but also went around from Harvard to Afton.

It was one o'clock before the wreck or got the disabled engine back into the yards and the road was again clear for traffic. An examination of the engine's forward axle this morning showed that the passengers who rode behind that engine during the past few months escaped death by nothing short of a miracle.

The axle, which is nine inches in diameter and of the finest steel showed an old break which went two thirds of the distance through it and the great wheel had been held in place by but a thin band of steel. That it did not snap at some previous time when the engine was traveling at a high rate of speed, and cause an accident attended with great loss of life is considered by the company a most fortunate circumstance.

The fireman of the engine was Harry Coulter, formerly of this city. The railroad men state that had it not been for the extreme cold which made the steel snap the axle might have held for weeks to come.

MERCURY TOOK A SLIDE LAST NIGHT

Some Indicators Showed 22 Degrees
Below Zero—Got Some Warmer
During the Day.

The mercury last night took a slide toward the bottom of the tube, and many thought it would get there before morning. It made a good slide and several parties report their thermometers as showing 22 below zero and a number ran from sixteen to eighteen.

The wind, however, got around into the south and it warmed up rapidly. At 9 o'clock a. m. a number of thermometers on exposed corners about town were only one or two below zero and at 12 o'clock they were from two to four degrees above that point. The weather prophet predicts clear and slightly warmer weather on Wednesday.

TO CLOSE ROLLER SKATING RINK

The Building is Needed for Use in Another Line of Business by

A good many of the young people of the city will be disappointed at the announcement that the skating rink has been closed for the season. Mr. Taylor of the firm of F. A. Taylor & Co. who has conducted the rink, states that it has been a paying investment but they have decided to close it so that they can utilize the space for other purposes. The rink has been running now for a period of twelve weeks and during this time it has enjoyed a large patronage, and has made roller skating the favorite pastime of many of the people who will miss it greatly during the cold weeks of the remainder of the winter.

VISITOR PLEASED WITH JANESVILLE

M. G. Lowenthal, agent for the Parker Pen Co. at the city of Paris, who has been visiting the home office in this city for the past two days was a caller at The Gazette office this morning. Mr. Lowenthal is a typical Frenchman, who has traveled much on the continent of Europe and is enjoying his first visit to America. A subject upon which he becomes very enthusiastic in conversation. He states that he has been favorably impressed by many of the conditions he has found in this country and considers that in many ways our cities, even the small cities, are considerably in advance of the European cities. A thing which especially impressed him was the fine office buildings. After a visit to the Jackson and the Hayes blocks he asserted that they were but few cities in the old country where office buildings could be found that would equal them in point of accommodation. Even in Paris itself the office buildings could not compare with those in this country. Few of them had any of the modern conveniences and none were provided with elevators. Mr. Lowenthal started on his return this morning.

Under these conditions the chilly blasts that were howling outside were quickly forgotten and the evening was one of the pleasantest the club has enjoyed.

SCANDAL IN ST. LOUIS.

Prominent Men Alleged to Have Attempted Bribery.

St. Louis, Jan. 28.—Bench warrants were served Monday on Charles Kratz and Emil Meyenberg, ex-members of the city council, and John K. Murrell, ex-member of the house of delegates, in connection with the suburban railway bill and an alleged scheme of bribery. Ed. E. Murrell, brother of John K. Murrell, gave bond in the sum of $5,000 in each case.

The grand jury, it is reported, has from twelve to fourteen indictments in the same case. Circuit Attorney Joseph W. Folk says that the jury's investigation will disclose the greatest bribery plot in the history of the city. One hundred and thirty-five thousand dollars is involved. Of this sum, it is claimed, $75,000 was to go to members of the house of delegates, presumably the "combine" which was supposed to control all legislation in the last house. The balance, $60,000, was to be paid, according to charges, to certain members of the city council. Both payments were conditional. It is claimed, on the passing of a certain bill to grant the Suburban Street Railway company a franchise to extend its lines through Forest Park.

PROSPERITY HAS STRUCK OUR CITY

Patriotic Citizens Should Constitute
Themselves Boosters for 1902—
Down with the Knockers.

The citizens of Janesville may well feel proud of their new city hall building, which when completed will be one of the finest buildings in Wisconsin. The Messrs. Rowson, who have the contract have done good work. This seems to be only a beginning to the prosperity that has struck our city.

When the weather permits the new public library and the federal post-office will be started giving work to a host of mechanics and laboring men. This is only a few of the improvements that Janesville will see during 1902. Quite a number of property holders are figuring on building the coming spring.

In Riverview Park, which is one of the prettiest residence districts in Janesville, several new buildings are planned, at the present time there are not half enough houses in this district to supply the demands of the tenters, for with its pretty park and natural drainage facilities it is not only one of the prettiest, but also one of the healthiest districts of the city to reside in.

There is some talk of extending the Forest Park street railway to Riverview Park, which would not only make the Forest Park branch a paying investment for the Street Railway Co., but would also be the cause of still more buildings being erected in this delightful suburb. No doubt other manufacturing industries will be anxious to locate in our city during the coming year. They could not locate in a better city.

For 1902 let all patriotic citizens constitute themselves "boosters" as our honorable mayor called the good, progressive citizens at the laying of the corner stone of the new city hall, and let the war cry for 1902 be "down with the knockers." RETALS.

WOULD GIVE UP ISLANDS.

Hot Debate Follows Demand for Reprimand of Gen. Wheaton—House Transacts Little Business and Adjourns Until Wednesday.

Washington, Jan. 28.—"It is my belief that conditions in the Philippines will continue to grow worse instead of better; that instead of there being peace insurrection will become more violent. The time is coming when we will begin to consider without regard to party alliances the desirability of extending complete liberty to the Philippines by aiding them to set up a republic of their own and by withdrawing our forces from the islands."

This view of the ultimate destiny in the Philippines expressed by Senator Hale of Maine Monday caused a profound sensation.

Senator Hale's view was expressed as an interruption of Senator Money's speech upon the Lodge Philippine tariff bill. The Senator from Mississippi opened the debate upon that measure for the Democrats.

Mr. Dubois of Idaho directed attention to a dispatch from Manila quoting Gen. Wheaton as criticizing some remarks of Dr. Schurman in a speech at Boston and saying the opinion was prevalent in the Philippines that men were sent to prison in Manila for saying less.

"I think," said Mr. Dubois, "in view of the statements in this dispatch the President ought to reprimand Gen. Wheaton and those officers in the Philippines who are criticizing the Senate for its action or statements regarding the Philippines."

Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts suggested that it would be wise to ascertain before Gen. Wheaton was reprimanded whether he actually made the statements attributed to him.

Mr. Spooner of Wisconsin said he did not believe the dispatch was either inspired or censored, but felt the Senate ought to await definite information. Gen. Wheaton was a fine officer of high character and notable achievements. "I have the word of the Senator from Indiana (Beveridge) that the censorship of news dispatches in the Philippines was abolished some time ago," said Mr. Spooner.

Mr. Money then made an extended speech in criticism of the government policy in the Philippines. He maintained that the United States in acquiring the islands and holding them had done one of the most foolish things ever done by a nation and he was afraid we would "not have sense enough to retrace our steps."

Mr. Hale here interrupted to say that the situation in the Philippines would grow worse.

Replying to a question of Mr. Hale as to what he would do with the islands, Mr. Money said: "Let them go to the devil and take care of themselves as far as the American people are concerned."

Mr. Platt of Connecticut said he did not want to let occasion pass without expressing his emphatic dissent from the principle on which Mr. Money's remarks were founded. Mr. Platt contended that if the United States had the right to acquire territory and hold sovereignty over it it would be a justification of ourselves to yield our rights to that territory as soon as the inhabitants of the territory might demand their independence.

Mr. Foraker concurred with Mr. Platt and quoted from authorities in sustaining the position.

The House adopted a resolution calling for documents relating to the old training ship Vermont, which was placed out of commission last summer, and also passed a bill to provide for the compulsory attendance of witnesses before registrars and receivers of the general land office. A bill to appropriate $100,000 for establishing homes for the teachers of articulate speech to deaf children was defeated. The House adjourned until Wednesday.

Seeing her victim fall the young woman turned the weapon against herself and inflicted a serious wound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Inflammation and ulceration of the uterus laid me low and robbed life of its joys for me. For eight years I was in frequent pain and misery, and then Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to me, the greatest boon I have known, for it brought new life and health to me. I used several bottles of Compound and your Sanative Wash. My improvement was slow, but from the first bottle I felt that I was better, and so I kept up courage and continued the treatment. ## ALL WRONG

The Mistake Is Made By Many Janesville Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of backache.

To be cured you must know the cause.

It is wrong to imagine relief is cure.

Backache is kidney ache.

You must cure the kidneys.

A Janesville resident tells you how they can be done:

Mrs. S. L. Beaden of 14 S. River St. says: "During two or three years I suffered most of the time with a terrible dragging down pain in my back just over the kidneys. It was very trying when I was at work, and if I did any lifting my bladder became affected, causing me considerable annoyance. I also had attacks of headaches, which seemed like congestion in the top and back of my head. When I read about Doan's Kidney Pills I did not have any too much confidence in them but my daughter got a box at the People's Drug Co's store and persuaded me to use them. They took right hold and made a wonderful change in my condition. I hardly realized how bad I was until Doan's Kidney Pills brought me relief from the afflictions. For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Also on sale at King's Pharmacy.
